

Structure of the Earth

Answer sheet - Activity 1

Answers

1. a)

- b. Core = 35 to 70 km thick; mantle = 2 800 km thick; outer core = 2 000 km; inner core = 2 800 km
2. The crust and inner core (MO)
 3. The crust is under the oceans. (MO)
 4. Continental crust is visible in the image of Earth. (MO)
 5. Corrected statements. (MO)
 - a. Earth has two types of crust.
 - b. The thinnest parts of Earth's crust are under the oceans.
 - c. New crust is continually formed under the oceans.
 - d. Granite is a rock that occurs in continental crust.